Abdón Pedrajas Littler has opened an office in Valencia with a team of six professionals, led by partner Javier Molina

After 23 years as a partner at Cuatrecasas in Valencia, Javier Molina -who joins a team of five other professionals-, will direct the new headquarters that the firm has opened in the Valencian Community.

With this opening, the labour law firm now has four offices in the Iberian Peninsula: Madrid,

Barcelona, Lisbon and Valencia, in addition to the international presence through Littler Global April 13, 2022.

The firm, which closed 2021 with revenues of 6.7 million euros (12% more than in the previous year), continues its growth and expansion project, and lands in a strategic market for its clients both with their local needs in Valencia, and with their interests in Spain and the rest of the countries where Littler is present.

The new office, located at Calle Don Juan de Austria, 32, will be led by Javier Molina, who, after more than twenty years of experience in the Valencian Community, has in-depth knowledge of the region and the local market. Specialist in labour relations, he has extensive experience in collective bargaining and productive decentralisation processes, as well as in the area of work accidents and occupational risk prevention.

Along with Molina, the lawyers Patricia Madrona García, Amparo Bru Mundi, Gema Pla Peris, Inmaculada Martínez and Raquel Romero González also join the Valencia headquarters.

The opening of the new Valencian office is completed with the launch of a German Desk, thanks to Javier Molina's previous experience in this area, to provide German-speaking clients and German companies (or Spanish companies that want to do business in Germany) comprehensive advice on labour matters.

Antonio Pedrajas, managing partner of Abdón Pedrajas Littler, assures that "Valencia is a strategic location for the firm's growth project. The new headquarters will allow us to expand our services, faithful to our maxim of offering top quality advice to our clients thanks to the integration of Javier and the rest of the team, recognised experts in Labor Law and with extensive knowledge of the Valencian legal market."

For his part, Javier Molina, new managing partner of the Valencia office, states: "joining a leading firm in labour matters, to promote its growth in the Valencian Community, is a challenge that both I and the rest of the team embarked with a high degree of commitment and, above all, with high doses of energy and enthusiasm."
