Abencys has been appointed as insolvency administrator for the fashion firm Poète which has been declared bankrupt.

Poète was founded in 2005, reaching more than 20 points of sale throughout the country, including its own shops and corners in El Corte Inglés. Like many other firms in this sector, it was seriously affected by the COVID-19 crisis.

For its part, Abencys will have to carry out the process, liquidating the company's assets and paying the creditors' claims, as established by the Insolvency Act. In this case, Manuel Gordillo (pictured), Abencys' Partner, will be in charge of managing the insolvency proceedings.
