Abreu Advogados advised Spanish company Vía Céleré in obtaining financing for Céleré Portodouro, the most recent venture of the Spanish company in Portugal

Via Célere's real estate project is located in Porto, in the Boavista area; one of the most premium residential areas of the city.

The operation was led by Olga Serrano and Francisco Carmona, on Via Célere's side, and by Luís de Andrade Pinhel (pictured) a consultant at Abreu Advogados, who led the operation to ensure the obtaining of financing to make possible the operation.

Via Célere is the leader in the real estate development business in Spain. It has been operating in Portugal since the beginning of 2018, where it has been identifying sustainable projects for investment and development according to the company's method, which has many years of leadership in the Spanish market.
