Ana Grosso Alves is the new professional partner of Abreu Advogados and reinforces the Litigation and Arbitration practice. With this integration, Abreu maintains its commitment to a sustained growth of its practice areas.

With a Law Degree from Universidade Nova de Lisboa, a Master in Criminal Law from the Lisbon University Law School and a Post-Graduation in Administrative Law from the Portuguese Catholic University, Grosso Alves has experience in the areas of Litigation and Arbitration, having been the Coordinator of Litigation and Criminal Law at Gómez-Acebo & Pombo in Portugal, from where she moved to Abreu.

"Ana Grosso Alves' integration allows us to reinforce our position as a reference firm for clients and partners, broadening our experience in an area that has seen a significant increase in demand in recent years. Ana has a long and important track record in the litigation and criminal law area and a deep knowledge of its application to various realities. She will be a great asset to our team and will help us to give a quick response and personalized follow-up that we want to continue to provide to our clients", highlights Inês Sequeira Mendes, managing partner of Abreu.

"I am very pleased to be able to join the team at Abreu Advogados and to be part of its growth and affirmation as one of the leading independent law firms in Portugal. There is a great harmony between the values and purpose of Abreu Advogados and what I stand for in my personal and professional life, so this is a challenge that comes almost naturally in my career. I hope to contribute with my experience and knowledge to create more and more synergies between Abreu Advogados and its several stakeholders", says Ana Grosso Alves, new professional partner of Abreu Advogados.

After having reinforced its Projects & Structured Finance practice area a few weeks ago with a new partner Bruno Azevedo Rodrigues along with a new team, Abreu Advogados keeps growing with the integration of Ana Grosso Alves as a new professional partner.
