After a remarkable 8% growth, propelling net invoicing beyond a million euros and establishing five international partnerships, Antonio Benítez Ostos, Founder and Managing Partner of Administrativando Abogados, turns attention to acknowledging the dedicated team behind the firm's success.

Professional Profiles

María José Amo Gago, the new Director, holds an extraordinary academic record and over a decade of experience, specializing in guiding and defending complex administrative proceedings nationally and internationally.

Assuming the role of Director, Amo Gago will be responsible for developing growth strategies, overseeing associate work, and participating, when required, in internal firm matters.

Adela Merino León, the new Associate, has worked on issues including water law, civil servants' rights, administrative penalties, and urban planning. She annually serves as a jury member evaluating final thesis works on administrative law.
