Central American law firm Aguilar Castillo Love announced the appointment of Violeta Núñez Silva as a partner in their Managua office.

Núñez Silva is a lawyer and notary public admitted in Nicaragua since 2002. She holds an LLM from Cornell Law School, and is the acting president of Instituto Nicaragüense de Desarrollo (INDE), a NGO dedicated to promote the social and economic development of private enterprises.

Prior to joining the regional firm, Núñez Silva practiced at Nicaragua law firm Núñez Rizo Zambrana, advising both national and international companies as well as financial institutions. She also served as deputy head of legal at a leading Central American bank in Nicaragua.

Thelma Carrion, Nicaragua managing partner of Aguilar Castillo Love, said: "We are very excited to welcome Violeta to our office. She will have a great impact on our banking practice, and on our compliance practice in general. Our clients will benefit from her expertise be it on a stand-alone basis or in the context of M&A or restructuring transactions. In addition, she is a very experienced notary and will be able to advise clients in all aspects requiring notarial deeds.”
