Andersen has hired Marta Morales as corporate and M&A partner in the Seville office, with the responsibility of coordinating the activity of the corporate department in Andalusia. The firm continues its commitment to the solid growth of the department in all of its offices.

Marta Morales holds a degree in Law and Business Management from the CEU San Pablo University and a Master's degree in Corporate Legal Consultancy from the Instituto de Empresa. She has more than 25 years of professional experience, in which she has specialised in the areas of Corporate M&A, restructuring and insolvency and distressed transactions. She has developed her career mainly at Deloitte Legal, where she has worked for 22 years as Partner of Corporate M&A and Restructuring & Insolvency and head of the legal area of Andalusia. In the academic field, she teaches on the Master's Degree in Corporate Legal Consultancy at the Cajazol Institute of Studies in Seville, as well as collaborating with other institutions.

José Vicente Morote and Íñigo Rodríguez-Sastre, Managing Partners of Andersen in Iberia, have emphasised that Marta Morales' extensive professional experience represents "an important reinforcement of the Corporate and M&A department, in line with the development of the area that we are carrying out at national level within the Firm's Strategic Plan, which aims to develop all practice areas in each of the offices to the highest level".

"The evidence of the implementation of this objective has been the growth of the Corporate and M&A area in the last months of this 2022 in all offices with the incorporation of partners such as Carmen March in Valencia, Juan Ignacio Alonso Dregi in Barcelona or Carmen Mozún and Federico Belausteguigoitia in Madrid, with the firm committed to strengthening the area from all specialties and sectors of the practice", have asserted the managing partners of Andersen.
