

ANDERSEN IN SPAIN PROMOTES FOUR NEW PARTNERS, INCLUDING THREE WOMEN

Posted on 06/05/2021

Category: Archive

Andersen has announced the appointment of Rocío Gil, Isabel Martínez Moriel, Elena Sevilla and

Jaime Aguilar as partners, in a big commitment to the talent of the firm's professionals

Andersen has approved the promotion of four new partners in Spain, with the appointment of Rocío Gil, Isabel Martínez Moriel, Jaime Aguilar and Elena Sevilla, which represents a new milestone for the firm as it is the largest number of partner promotions in the firm's history in this country.

These promotions are part of the firm's strategy aimed at promotion, professional development and career recognition in the firm, and the firm's strong commitment to talent, equal opportunities and the projection of the professionals in positions of responsibility.

"These appointments reinforce the competences of specific areas such as Compliance or Privacy and Data Protection or other more traditional areas such as M&A or Arbitration," highlighted the managing partners of Andersen in Spain, José Vicente Morote and Íñigo Rodríguez-Sastre, who framed these promotions in "Andersen's objective of maintaining and promoting the firm's professionals, giving them a career, as in this case in which those promoted have extensive experience and specialisation." "All this will allow us to continue to grow in order to respond to the needs of the national and international market and maintain the pace of growth of the global firm, which already operates in more than 130 countries," said the managing partners.

Rocío Gil (pictured top left) is a partner specialising in Criminal Law and head of Andersen's Compliance practice in Spain. In her daily work she assists and advises national and international companies in the defence of their interests in criminal scenarios, as well as in the development, implementation and monitoring of compliance and risk management programmes and policies.

Isabel Martínez Moriel (pictured top right) is a partner in charge of the firm's Privacy, IT & Digital Business and Competition practice in Spain and has extensive experience in the areas of Privacy, New Technologies and Data Protection and in Competition and European Union Law.

Elena Sevilla (pictured bottom left) is a partner at Andersen in the International Litigation and Arbitration practice. She has extensive experience in international Arbitration and Litigation and specialises in complex Litigation. She is recognised by a prestigious international directory in the area of Dispute Resolution.

Jaime Aguilar (pictured bottom right) is a partner in the M&A practice area and, in relation to Corporate transactions, has advised many companies on domestic and cross-border transactions, as well as on private equity and Corporate Restructuring Transactions.