Andersen has opened its new headquarters in Barcelona, located in the Beethoven building at Avenida Diagonal, 618, which was the first headquarters of the former Arthur Andersen in the city.

The inauguration event, which was attended by more than 200 guests, and in which José Vicente Morote, together with Íñigo Rodríguez-Sastre, Managing Partners of Andersen in Iberia, emphasised that: "This change of office is part of our commitment to improving the quality of the working conditions of our professionals and the provision of our services".

The event was also attended by Antonio Brufau, chairman of Repsol, former Arthur Andersen and one of its most prominent managing partners in Barcelona. During his speech, Brufau stressed that Andersen's values are those that define its professionals and that these, placed at the service of the firm, augur a great project for the future.

Following this inauguration, the firm is committed to continuing its growth on a national and international level, with a presence in 174 countries, with more than 400 offices and 71 headquarters in Europe.
