Uría Menéndez announced that Gabriel Bottini joins the firm's Madrid office as a partner. Bottini was the first National Director of International Affairs and Disputes at Argentina's Treasury Attorney-General's Office.

During his time in office, Bottini was involved in over 50 international arbitration cases under ICSID, UNCITRAL and ICC rules. He has also been appointed as an arbitrator in various investment arbitrations. Bottini is also a member of the group of experts in investment policy convened by the World Economic Forum as well as other institutions. In addition, he teaches international law at the University of Buenos Aires.

Jesús Remón and Miguel Virgos, partners at the Madrid office, stated that "Uría Menéndez could not be more delighted that Gabriel has decided to join us", noting that, "with his incorporation, the firm will strengthen its arbitration capabilities, which already feature an unparalleled Latin-American presence through its participation in the law firm Philippi, Prietocarrizosa, Ferrero DU & Uria (PPU), with offices in Colombia, Chile and Peru".
