Ashurst Spain has promoted Begoña de la Riva Diéguez, Soledad Adell Pijuán and Isabel Matute Sancho to senior associates

The three promotions took place last May, although the law firm has announced them recently.

Previously as her promotion to senior associate in the Commercial area, Begoña de la Riva Diéguez (pictured centre) has been an associate at Ashurst for the last eight years. Previously she worked at Rödl & Partner. She holds a Law degree from Universidad Carlos III de Madrid and a Master's degree in Internacional Law from ISDE.

Soledad Adell Pijuán (pictured left) has been promoted as a senior associate in the Public Law & Regulatory area of the firm after almost five years of working in the same area as an associate. She graduated in Law and International Relations, and she has studied Political and Administrative Sciences from the Universidad Pontificia Comillas. She has been studying for the State Attorney competition exam.

Isabel Matute Sancho (pictured right) has been promoted as a senior associate in the Commercial area. She joined Ashurst in 2013. Previously she worked as a Risk Management consultant at Management Solutions. She graduated in Law and Business Administration from the Universidad de Zaragoza, and she holds other studies in Commercial Law from The London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE).
