Catalonia-based firm Badia Advocats has hired former “conseller” of the Presidency of the Generalitat who today left prison to work at the law firm in Terrassa

Former "conseller" of the Presidency of the Generalitat, Jordi Turull (pictured), left Lledoners prison in Sant Joan de Vilatorrada (Barcelona) today to start working at the Badia office in Terrassa (Barcelona). The leader of JxCat, who is imprisoned and sentenced to 12 years in prison for sedition and embezzlement, will go to work under article 100.2 of the prison regime.

Turull holds a degree in law from the Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona (UAB) and will work as a specialist lawyer in Public Law at the Badia office in Terrassa, being the second leader of the imprisoned process that works in this municipality close to the prison, after Josep Rull.
