

BARRILERO STRENGTHENS PRIVATE WEALTH AREA

Posted on 22/09/2020

Category: Archive

Bufete Barrilero y Asociados has reinforced its Private Wealth area with the hiring of former BNP Paribas Wealth Management managing director Alfonso Martínez Parras

Martínez Parras (pictured) is a Law graduate from Universidad Complutense de Madrid and holds an MBA from IE.

He has spent practically his entire professional career in the Banking sector. Among others, he was managing director of BNP Paribas Wealth Management, director of Private Banking at JP Morgan Bank S.A., formerly Chase Manhattan Bank S.A., where he was president, secretary-general and director of Chase Manhattan Ahorro SGIC.

In this new professional path, he joins the team of Barrilero y Asociados with the aim of contributing his expert vision in Wealth Management to the firm's Private Wealth area.