Berlin Packaging, the world's largest Hybrid Packaging Supplier has acquired Vidrierías Pérez Campos SL, a family-owned Spanish distributor of glass packaging for the olive oil, home fragrance, and spirits markets.

Founded in 1987 and based in Rute (Córdoba) in southern Spain, Vidrierías Pérez Campos serves the local market with high-quality glass packaging solutions. The acquisition expands Berlin Packaging's market coverage in Iberia and enables Vidrierías Pérez Campos' customers to have access to Berlin Packaging's extensive product range. The company's General Manager, Juan de Dios Pérez, will continue with the company, offering his deep knowledge of the business and extensive experience within the glass sector.

Pérez Campos is the 3rd acquisition Berlin Packaging has completed in EMEA (Europe, Middle East, and Africa) in 2022 and 5th acquisition completed globally in 2022.

Garrigues advised Vidrierias Perez Campos with Rafael Paniza (partner), Alberto García (associate) and Antonio Fernández Carrasco (associate).
