Bird & Bird has advised Getlife, the Madrid-based life insurance startup, on a €6 million capital round. Previously, Getlife raised one million euros in a pre-seed round, the largest in its category for a Spanish insurtech. The entry of private capital comes after significant growth in its first seven months of activity.

This round of financing comes after significant company growth. Getlife has quadrupled revenue since October last year.
