Garrigues has advised the spanish company Previnsa Servicios Integrales on its sale, who will retain a 25 percent stake in the share capital. Its headquarters is located in Langreo (Asturias), and personnel training centers in Madrid, Oviedo and Valencia.

The legal team consisted of lawyers from the corporate and tax areas. The commercial advice was led by partner Jose María Muñoz Paredes together with senior associate Concepción Ramírez and associate Beatriz Obelleiro. On the other hand, the tax advice was led by partner Alejandro Fernández and senior associate Alfonso Vallaure.

The purchase of Previnsa allows GSA to expand its business lines thanks to the three sectors in which it specializes: surveillance and fire prevention in nuclear power plants; personnel training and occupational safety even in complex situations (high altitudes, chemical emergencies, maritime safety, wind farms, thermonuclear power plants, etc.); and the production and marketing of signs and accessories for safety at work.

GSA was also advised by Gatti Pavesi Bianchi Ludovici on all matters relating to italian law.
