Broseta has advised Spain's veterinary group Mivet on its integration of four veterinary clinics in

Madrid, Barcelona and Valencia

Mivet (Clinic Acquisitions Holdings), founded in 2018 and headquartered in Madrid, owns more than 22 veterinary clinics in Spain. With this horizontal integration deal, the veterinary group expands its business volumen in strategic geographical areas.

The four clinics are Clínica Veterinaria Sant Mori in Badalona (Barcelona), Grupo Veterinario La Fortuna, which owns five veterinary clinics in Leganés (Madrid), Centro Veterinario Stolz (Valencia) and Hospital Veterinario Miramadrid in Paracuellos del Jarama (Madrid).
