Caiado Guerreiro's team followed the process from the Due Diligence phase to the negotiation, contract drafting and execution of the purchase.

Following the policy of implementing TÜV Austria's business in Portugal, Caiado Guerreiro assisted the Austrian company on acquiring Setinsp, a leading Portuguese firm, to inspect and certify gas installations. With this acquisition, TÜV Austria expands its portfolio of solutions and strengthens its position in the Iberian Peninsula market.

Ricardo Lopes, partner and lawyer at Caiado Guerreiro, the lawyer Zuzanna Maria Sadlowska and João Sismeiro Pereira, trainee lawyer, advised on all legal issues inherent in the process, from the due diligence phase to negotiation, drafting of contracts and the execution of the purchase.

"The finalisation of this operation, an important business in a very specialised area, shows how the focus on our clients, in a very close relationship, added to the high-quality work of our team, guarantees excellent results", explains João Caiado Guerreiro, managing partner of Caiado Guerreiro.
