Cases & Lacambra has hired Marta González-Llera (pictured centre), from GA_P, as a new partner in the real estate department.

With more than 15 years of experience, González-Llera has a degree in law and business from the Universidad Pontificia de Comillas Icade and specialises in the field of real estate and urban planning law.

She has participated in a wide range of real estate transactions, from joint ventures between international funds and local developers, to the sale and purchase of hotel portfolios, BTR transactions and commercial leases, among others.

She is also a lecturer at the Legal Clinic of the Autonomous University of Madrid and the International University of La Rioja.
