CCA has strengthened its Labour department with the hiring of Maria Barbosa as managing associate

CCA law firm announces the integration of Maria Barbosa as Labour managing associate.

Barbosa (pictured) has over 15 years of experience in Labour Law, Social Security and Labour Litigation areas, having worked for the past seven years in the Labour department of Uría Menéndez - Proença de Carvalho. Maria has extensive experience in advising companies and their Human Resources departments, on Corporate Restructuring operations, in the context of business or establishment acquisitions and in the resolution of judicial and extrajudicial Labour Disputes, among others.

For CCA Labour partner Pedro Antunes: "The hiring of Maria Barbosa is part of a strategy of investing in quality, experience and leadership. Our goal is to build a benchmark team, with the ability to provide an excellent response to the challenges that are thrown at us every day. We are very happy with Maria's decision and we are counting on her to continue to grow".
