CMS Albiñana & Suárez de Lezo (CMS Spain) has advised the Spanish startup Playtomic on the acquisition of the Swiss company GotCourts.

GotCourts is a social network for racket sports players and an online service for booking courts and coaches. It's the first platform to provide everything a player needs in a single network. Since the business was founded in 2014, it has grown rapidly in Switzerland and are now scaling internationally. GotCourts already connects 250,000 racket sports enthusiasts and supports their passion for the sport.

Playtomic is Europe's largest sports booking app and SaaS for sport venues. The company operates in 25 countries, we have over 2500 partner clubs and over 1 million active players.
