CMS Portugal advised Atenor in the purchase of a company that owns a project near the Campo Grande transport interface in Lisbon. The project covers an area of 8,373 m², and enables the construction of a building with about 14,000 m² of offices, 450 m² of retail and even parking.

CMS Portugal relied on a multidisciplinary team led by partner Sara Blanco de Morais (urban planning) and Francisco Xavier de Almeida (corporate m&a). The team also included David Apolónia (senior associate, corporate m&a), Catarina Arriaga Sampaio (associate, corporate m&a), Gonçalo Cabral Moncada (associate, corporate m&a), Francisco Herculano (coordinating associate, real estate) and David Pratas Brito (associate, urbanism).

Uria Menéndez advised the selling side.

Atenor, a renowned real estate developer of Belgian origin, is listed on Euronext Brussels and is present in several European countries.
