Gonçalo Madeira has joined the team of partners at CMS Portugal. The lawyer, who comes from Cuatrecasas, will join the Litigation practice area of the firm.

José Luís Arnaut, managing partner of CMS said: "It is with great joy that we welcome Gonçalo Madeira to our firm. He is a professional of excellence, a great litigation lawyer with proven evidence. This integration reinforces our commitment to provide an increasingly better response to the needs of our clients."

Gonçalo Madeira said: "It is with great enthusiasm and expectation that I embrace this new project. Being able to be part of CMS: a firm with a unique international dimension in the Portuguese market, and great lawyers, is extremely challenging and motivating."

Throughout his professional career, Gonçalo Madeira has been involved in conflicts resulting from commercial relations between companies, namely in the context of purchase and sale contracts, works contracts, agency contracts or commercial concession contracts in general, between others. He also acts in the context of conflicts related to non-contractual civil liability and in the context of insolvency proceedings.
