

CRISTINA ALBA, NEW TAX PARTNER OF ALEDRA

Posted on 05/03/2024

Category: Moves

Tags: Aledra, Cristina Alba, dx1

Law firm Aledra welcomes Cristina Alba as its newest partner, recognizing her promotion due to her extensive 20-year career in providing tax advisory services to both Spanish and international companies, as well as high-net-worth individuals.

With a wealth of experience gained at prestigious firms such as Roca Junyent, Baker McKenzie, and EY Abogados, Cristina Alba brings an analytical and practical approach to complex tax planning for investments and restructurings. Her unwavering commitment to client progress and exceptional leadership make her an invaluable asset to the firm.

Alba has a consistent track record advising international funds in investment and divestment processes in Spain, playing a pivotal role in major multinational business reorganization transactions impacting various jurisdictions.

In the corporate realm, she specializes in designing and planning succession in family businesses, providing guidance on private equity operations, fiscal due diligence processes, and purchase and sale transactions. Her representation of Spanish companies in tax inspection and litigation procedures spans Spain, Europe, and the United States, encompassing issues like refunds for undue payments and "Mutual Agreement Procedures."

She has also played a crucial role in real estate operations, involving both international funds in Spain and Spanish companies domestically and abroad. Notably, she contributed to the establishment of the first Asset Bank Fund by SAREB. Her multifaceted expertise positions Aledra as a strong player in tax and advisory services.

