Lisbon-based CRS Advogados has established a partnership with Brazilian law firm Nelson Wilians & Advogados Associados (NW).

According to the firm, the partnership has been agreed in an effort to capitalise on the increase in Brazilian investment in Portugal as well as the growing number of Portuguese companies expanding into Latin America.

CRS Advogados managing partner Nuno Pereira da Cruz (pictured), said: "Nowadays, the request for legal services is not limited to Golden Visa or real estate, but it has also extended to large investments in several sectors of activity."
