Cuatrecasas has advised Grupo Empresarial Costa, S.L. on the acquisition of the entire share capital of Distribuciones Juan Luna, S.L. and Abrilisto, S.L.

The company Juan Luna, has more than thirty years of experience in cutting, slicing and packaging hams, cheeses and sausages. With this acquisition, Grupo Costa reinforces its strategy of greater proximity to the end consumer and consolidates its industrial structure.

Costa Food Group is linked to the birth of Piensos Costa in Fraga (Huesca) in 1966. The company began its activity with the purchase and sale of cereals and, since then, it has applied models of integration, expansion and growth that have allowed it to consolidate itself as a benchmark in the national and European agri-food sector. Today, the Costa Business Group, on which the Costa Food Group meat holding company depends, is present in 107 countries and its revenue amounts to €1.5 billion per year.
