Cuatrecasas has advised Ufenau Capital Partners on its first investment in Spain with the purchase of industrial refrigeration specialist R&M

Swiss investment group Ufenau Capital Partners (UCP) has acquired a majority stake in the leading industrial refrigeration solutions Diseño y Mantenimiento de Plantas Frigoríficas (now R&M), based in Valencia. This is UCP's first investment in Spain, specialising in investments in service companies in the education and lifestyle, business and financial services and health sectors.

R&M has executed some of the largest industrial refrigeration facility design, installation and maintenance projects in Spain, primarily for leading companies in the growing food and logistics sector.
