Cuatrecasas has joined REDI association (Entrepreneurial Network for Diversity and Inclusion), which promotes the inclusion of LGBT diversity among its employees

The firm is one of the latest members to join the network, which is formed by more than 50 companies and law firms such as Uría Menéndez, Hogan Lovells, KPMG, Baker McKenzie and Pinsent Masons. The aim of REDI is to promote the management of diversity and LGBTI inclusion in the workplace.

Present at the event to present the new members was Cuatrecasas' HR director Núria Martín Furriol (pictured).
