Cuatrecasas has advised General de Alquiler de Maquinaria on the launch of a bond programme on the Alternative Fixed Income Market for up to €80 million

This amount complements the €50 million Commercial Paper Programme it launched last January, as announced by Iberian Lawyer, on its debut on MARF, and expands its presence in the market.

Thanks to the placement of potential bond issues under the bond Programme, the company will have flexible access to qualified investors to diversify its sources of medium and long-term financing with fixed or variable interest rates, linked to Euribor, and with bullet maturities or early redemption options.

GAM is a multinational company from Asturias, that specialises in rental and sales services of new and used machinery for lifting, energy, events, structures and handling.
