Cuatrecasas has advised El Corte Inglés on the renewal of its promissory note programme in the MARF for a maximum balance of €1.2 million.

The programme, linked to sustainability objectives, will allow the retail group to diversify its sources of financing and access new investors, among other issues.

The team involved in the transaction was led by financial partner Miguel Cruz Roperó (pictured), who was supported by lawyers Jerónimo Poza Anguís and Miguel Ángel Gonzalo Salazar.
