Cuatrecasas has promoted 10 lawyers to partner and 4 to counsel, achieving gender parity in its latest promotion in Spain

Cuatrecasas' Board has approved the promotion of lawyers Marta Máñez Pérez, Irene Moreno-Tapia Rivas and María Carrillo, as well as lawyers Marcos García González, Miguel Sánchez Monjo and Jean-Yves Teindas. Lawyers Sara Quaresma, Pedro Marques Bom and Pedro Vidal Matos have also become partners of the firm in Portugal. The Board has also approved the incorporation of Chilean lawyer Cristián Conejero Roos as a partner to lead Cuatrecasas' new office in Santiago de Chile (Chile).

On the other hand, the firm has also appointed four new counsel: Santiago Busto López de Abechuchó, Brígida Galbete Ciáurriz, Francisco José García Molina and Ana Sofia Silva. The appointments of new partners and counsel are in addition to the internal promotion process in all categories of lawyers that Cuatrecasas carries out every year at this time, which reinforces the firm's commitment to promoting the talent and career development of its professionals, as well as its confidence in the organization's ability to face the future.
