Dávalos Abogados, the first boutique law firm dedicated to commercial law transactions and investments between Spain and Cuba, led by Lourdes Dávalos León, former head of Uría Menéndez's Cuba practice, has arrived to Madrid.

Dávalos Abogados

Based in Madrid and specializing in international contracts, project financing, and the establishment of foreign investment initiatives, Dávalos Abogados will provide tailor-made advice to Spanish companies as well as entities from other jurisdictions on their current and future investments in Cuba.

Lourdes Dávalos León

Lourdes Dávalos León, dually licensed in Cuban and Spanish law, is internationally recognized as one of the most influential lawyers practising in Cuba. She has experience negotiating foreign investment projects with the Cuban government and state-owned enterprises at all institutional levels and across a wide range of economic sectors. "Clients of Dávalos Abogados will benefit from her skill and experience in designing and executing commercial transactions as well as resolving complex legal situations in Spain, Cuba, and Latin America", the company shared in a press release.
