Dentons has advised the Private Equity purchasers on the acquisition of Imperial Brands' hand-

rolled cigars business for £1.1 billion

Nicholas Plant and Jesús Durán (Dentons) and Hermenegildo Altozano (Bird & Bird) have advised the Private Equity purchasers on the acquisition of Imperial Brands' hand-rolled cigars business for £1.1 billion.

The acquisition includes the brands Cohiba, Montecristo and Romeo y Julieta. The business has operations in 150 countries.
