

DENTONS SPAIN REINFORCES ITS PUBLIC & ENVIRONMENTAL LAW AREA

Posted on 21/01/2021

Category: Archive

Dentons Spain has hired two lawyers, Natalia Palomar and Carlos Pemán Lahuerta to reinforce the Public and Environmental Law Department headed by partner Daniel Vázquez (pictured left)

On these additions, the law firm stated: "We take another step forward in the growth strategy of Dentons Spain and reinforce the capacity of the services we offer to our clients. Welcome Natalia and Carlos!"

Natalia Palomar Liceras (pictured right) joins Dentons as a senior associate. She comes from Broseta, where she has been Public & Regulatory associate since 2016. She has also worked as a lawyer of the same area at EY, as a Sports Law lawyer at Baker McKenzie and as an Antitrust area lawyer at Clifford Chance. She was a trainee at DLA Piper and at Abdón Pedrajas & Molero. She graduated in Law from the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid and got her Master's degree for Access to the Legal Profession from the Universidad San Pablo CEU. She earned her PhD in Public Law from the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid too.

Carlos Pemán Lahuerta (pictured centre) joins Dentons as an associate and he comes from Linares Barreda Abogados. He also worked at Ramón y Cajal Abogados. He graduated in Law from the Universidad de Zaragoza and holds an LLM in Law and Business Legal Counseling from I.E.Business School.