Dentons advised Komerční banka, a.s. and Česká spořitelna, a.s. in connection with the refinancing of the Eurowag Group. The Multicurrency Term and Revolving Facilities Agreement was signed to refinance and expand the group's existing credit facilities by providing facilities of up to €715 million (out of which €150 million is provided as an uncommitted incremental facility).

W.A.G payment solutions plc ("Eurowag") is a leading pan-European integrated payment and mobility platform focused on the commercial road transportation industry and is listed on the London Stock Exchange.

To the deal worked a multinational team. In Madrid the team was led by partner Jabier Badiola Bergara, associate Ignacio Fernández and paralegal Mercedes Talavera.

Prague-based partner Daniel Hurych and counsel Martin Mandulák led Dentons' cross-border legal team on the transaction, with assistance from associates Ondřej Valeš and Eva Klímová. The team also included partner Mark Segall (Warsaw) and counsel Surbhi Malhotra-Trenkel (Munich), who advised on English law; partner Nora Wouters and associate Domien Kriger in Brussels; partner Marcel Janssen and associate Viviënne de Jong in Amsterdam; and partner Patricia Gossányiová, counsel Miroslav Kapinaj and associate Richard Marcinčin in Bratislava.
