DLA Piper ABBC has advised EDP, through its subsidiary EDP Renováveis (EDPR), on the sale of its wind portfolio to Luxembourg Onex Renewables

The transaction was led by Mafalda Ferreira (pictured), Energy and Projects partner at DLA Piper ABBC and included the participation of Nuno Azevedo Neves, partner responsible for the Corporate and M&A and Energy area, partner João Costa Quinta and senior partner Nuno Castelo Branco da Corporate and M&A area, with special expertise in the Energy area.

A spokesperson from DLA Piper ABBC said: "After advising on EDPR's capital increase, which is so far the largest operation of 2021 in Portugal, EDPR's advice on the area of Renewable Energies, namely wind energy, highlights the office's strengths in Energy and M&A, adding to the wide range of transactions carried out by the team."
