DLA Piper has advised French Group Corum on the acquisition of 7 shopping centres

(supermarkets and petrol stations) in Valencia and Murcia

The seller, Valencian Family Cash supermarket chain, which is in full growth, has sold seven of the fourteen properties it owns to Corum for €33 million. Family Cash will remain in its establishments as a tenant, since they become the property of the French investment group Corum, in a sale & leaseback operation brokered by Real Estate advisory firm Colliers.

DLA Piper team was led by Orson Alcocer (pictured), partner in charge of the Real Estate area, together with associates Fátima Rico-Villademoros and Julia Fernández.
