DLA Piper has advised Starwood Capital Group on the sale of a multi-tenant office complex in Barcelona

DLA Piper has advised a controlled affiliate of Starwood Capital Group ("Starwood") on the sale of a multi-tenant office complex in Barcelona to a company controlled by Australian fund Macquarie Group.

This is the third Spanish transaction in which DLA Piper advises Starwood in the last 12 months, following the acquisition of a portfolio of logistics and office assets from Meridia Capital and of the Iberostar Las Dalias hotel in Adeje (Tenerife) from Iberostar.
