Dutilh Abogados has integrated three-partner intellectual property boutique Suárez de la Dehesa Abogados.

Madrid-based Suárez de la Dehesa has particular expertise in advising clients in the entertainment sector. It also specialises in law relating to audiovisual content.

Ivo Portabales, managing partner of Dutilh, said the merger would “open doors to an international market in which we had no presence”.

Suárez de la Dehesa is the second firm Dutilh has incorporated in recent months – in December last year, it merged with industrial property Garrido Pastor.
