Ecija has hired María Jesús Álvarez (pictured) as a new partner in the Advisory division. The team, which includes 6 partners and more than 40 professionals, specialises in advising on business management: startups, investment funds, SMEs, large companies and foundations in tax, labour, commercial and accounting matters.

She has more than 20 years of experience in labour management and human resources consultancy. She has worked at Ernst & Young, Auxadi, Deloitte and BDO.

Her appointment aims to strengthen the service that Ecija Advisory offers in the outsourcing of payroll services, labour advice and human resources consultancy, personnel administration, among other specialities.

In the words of Oliver von Schiller, managing partner of Ecija Advisory "At Ecija Advisory we offer 360° business management advice, which will be greatly strengthened with the arrival of María Jesús. After the pandemic, there is an increasing demand for labour management services due to the new working and remuneration formulas".

According to María Jesús Álvarez, new partner at Ecija Advisory "I am very excited to be part of the Ecija team and to join a project with an international vocation and in full growth. The labour market is in the midst of a transformation process and it is essential to accompany and advise our clients in any scenario. Doing so hand in hand with the professionals and clients of Ecija is, without a doubt, an excellent opportunity".
