Ecija has opened its new office in País Vasco, where its team stands out for its expertise in commercial, sports and real estate law practices and is made up of two partners and eleven professionals.

One of the new partners is Luis Felipe Fernández de Trocóniz (pictured right) who has more than thirty years of experience in commercial and insolvency law. He also holds a degree in Law and a Diploma in Legal-Economics from the University of Deusto, and is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Álava and of the Álava Bar Association.

Another of the new partners is Alfonso Fernández de Trocóniz (pictured left), a lawyer specialised in Real Estate and Town Planning Law, who has more than twenty-five years' experience in advising public and private entities on town planning development.

Fernández de Trocóniz has a degree in Law and a Diploma in Legal-Economic speciality from the University of Deusto, as well as a Diploma in Urban Planning from the Basque School of Territorial and Urban Studies of the Basque Institute of Public Administrations. He is Secretary of the Board of Directors of several companies and Chairman of Deportivo Alavés.

With this move, the firm adds its eighth office in Spain and its thirty-fifth globally, led by more than 200 partners and with a team of more than 1,000 professionals.
