The firm replaces shared spaces with individual offices

Ecix leaves its headquarters in Paseo de la Castellana to move to Calle Lagasca number 88, where it has rented a plant of more than 2,000 square meters. The firm will move to larger offices in which private offices return, setting up more than 70 individual offices. The move is also driven by the growth of the firm.

The firm led by Álvaro Ecija, was established in 2012 with an innovative project. The firm advises on the prevention and management of legal and business risks, offering their clients legal services in
