

EJASO ADVISES ON SALE OF EMBLEMATIC BUILDING IN SEVILLE

Posted on 22/03/2022

Category: Archive

Tag: slider

EJASO ETL Global in Seville has advised an asset management company on Real Estate sale

EJASO ETL Global in Seville, has advised an asset management company on the sale of a building that was the headquarters of Diario de Sevilla, located at Calle Rioja 14-16, to a European real estate investment management company, in order to use it as a hotel.

The EJASO ETL Global team in Seville, which carried out the sale and purchase of the building, was led by Javier Romero, commercial lawyer and partner in charge of EJASO ETL Global's Seville office, and Carlos Palma, tax lawyer and partner of the Firm.

EJASO ETL Global, which already has more than 25 professionals in its offices in Seville and Cordoba, and close to 200 throughout Spain, has provided advice on important transactions, both in the interest of national and international asset management companies, as well as funds specialising in this type of investment and financial institutions in the financing that, where appropriate.