

ENGLISH FOR THE GLOBAL LAWYER

Posted on 16/12/2011

Category: In-house news

Following the success of the Cambridge Legal Series, Ticket2law as an official preparatory centre for the University of Cambridge ILEC certificate, is launching in 2012 an innovative and practical Training Program called “English for the Global Lawyer”.

This is a program designed for professionals in the legal sector who wish to gain greater agility and develop their legal and business knowledge in the English language. Using client skills such as presentations, networking and telephone conversations, this comprehensive and up to date course will prepare you for a more competitive career. For more information please contact natasha.sharoff@iberianlegalgroup.com.