Eversheds Sutherland FCB has advised a Portuguese Family Office on the sale to the Ageas Portugal Group. The company owns Edifício Bloom, which was part of the Family Office's investment portfolio.

Founded in 1824, Ageas is an international Insurance group headquartered in Brussels and present in 14 countries in Europe and Asia. Ageas has been operating in Portugal since 2005.

The Group counts on 1,281 Employees and 2,722 Brokers to provide services to approximately 1.7 million customers of the various commercial brands: Ageas Seguros, Ageas Pensões, Médis, Ocidental and Seguro Directo.

The Eversheds Sutherland FCB team was led by partners Rodrigo Almeida Dias (pictured left), in the areas of Corporate Law and Real Estate Law, and Diogo Bernardo Monteiro (pictured right), in the area of Tax Law.

The Edifício Bloom, located in Sete Rios, was one of the first office buildings in Portugal with class A energy certification, the result of a project developed in 2010 by the architecture firm FSimões Arquitectos.
