In a significant development within the legal sector, Rubén Ferrer, a seasoned lawyer and former Partner at Gómez-Acebo & Pombo (GA_P), has joined EY Abogados as a partner. This transition marks a pivotal move for Ferrer, who has spent his entire professional career at GA_P, entering the firm as an associate in 2000 and later advancing to the role of Partner in the Corporate and M&A Department.

Ferrer's wealth of experience encompasses cross-border M&A, private equity, investment transactions, corporate governance, restructurings, divestitures, corporate conflicts, and general corporate and commercial matters. His notable track record includes representing strategic and financial investors across diverse industries, such as energy, manufacturing, insurance, real estate, financial services, technology, education, construction, healthcare, hospitality, media, entertainment, and retail. His work has spanned regions globally, including the U.S., Asia, Latin America, and Europe.

This strategic hire by EY Abogados underscores the firm's commitment to reinforcing its legal capabilities and furthering its expertise in key practice areas. Ferrer's extensive knowledge and international experience are expected to contribute significantly to the firm's growth and service offerings.
