

EY ABOGADOS SIGNS MARIVÍ CAMPOS AS PARTNER

Posted on 26/02/2020

Category: Archive

EY Abogados has signed Mariví Campos, from Korn Ferry, as a partner to join People Advisory Services area, led by Jaime Sol, to strengthen advice linked to sustainability, diversity and inclusion in Human Resources

After the recent incorporation of Francisco Silván, Mariví Campos joins the firm. Campos has more than 25 years of experience in Human Resources field. Before joining EY, she worked at Korn Ferry Hay Group, where she was also a partner. Throughout her career, she has also held executive positions at SHL International, Hay Group, Psicosoft and Talengo.

Campos holds a degree in Psychology from the Universidad Complutense de Madrid, a Master's degree in HR from Centro de Estudios Financieros (CEF), an MBA from IEDE Business School, Coaching studies from CTI and Lider-haz-GO, as well as a Digital Talent, Management and HR Services programme from ICEMD.

"The digital transformation and intergenerational relations within corporations are driving a new relationship between companies and their professionals. The incorporation of Mariví Campos will undoubtedly help us to strengthen our position and offer our clients the best service on the market" says Jaime Sol, partner in charge of People Advisory Services.

In the picture, from left to right, Ramón Palacín, EY Abogados co-managing partner, new partner Mariví Campos and Jaime Sol, head of People Advisory Services.