EY Abogados has advised Spanish firm Solarbay High Power on the sale of CAELUM RENOVABLES to Germany's Wirtgen Invest Energy

EY Abogados has advised the Spanish firm Solarbay High Power on the sale of CAELUM RENOVABLES, S.L.U. to Wirtgen Invest Energy GmbH. CAELUM RENOVABLES is the owner of the CAELUM IV photovoltaic plant project located in the province of León, with an installed capacity of 119.20 MWp.

The buyer was advised by Corporate partner Uri Geigle, from Barcelona-based DAUSS Abogados, and Sönke Schlaich, from Schlaich.slp Energía y Contract Management.
