José Antonio Caínzos, ex-Clifford Chance Litigation and Arbitration partner, has founded his own law firm, José Antonio Caínzos LDR

As Iberian Lawyer informed last week, Fernando Irurzun was appointed as Litigation and Arbitration partner at Clifford Chance replacing Jose Antonio Caínzos (pictured) who has been in charge of this department for the last 21 years. Before that, Caínzos worked at Baker Mckenzie where he developed the same task in a similar position. He has also been a State Attorney and currently chairs the Madrid International Arbitration Centre.

According to his LinkedIn profile, Caínzos has just founded his own law firm, Jose Antonio Caínzos LDR.
