With more than 30 years of experience, the professional specialises in public law and has provided advice on highly complex crimes. He also specialises in administrative law and everything related to taxation, urban planning, expropriations, public procurement, personnel, among others.

During these three decades of public and private activity, Suárez de Centi Buján has been secretary of the Regional Economic-Administrative Court of Castilla y León, legal advisor to the Consortium of Santiago de Compostela and the Port Authority of Ferrol San-Cibrao, member of the board of directors of a public limited company and advisor to the notarial association of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria between 1996 and 2021.

Likewise, the arrival of the jurist coincides with the opening of the new office of the firm, which is located in Serrano street, Madrid.
